for Seniors and People with Disabilities with Medi-Cal in Alameda County

If you are a senior or a person with disabilities and you have Medi-Cal, you may have heard about the California Coordinated Care Initiative. The Coordinated Care Initiative is a change in health care coverage for people with Medi-Cal. The change is being made in eight California counties, including Alameda County.

However...

The Coordinated Care Initiative starting date has been postponed for people who live in Alameda County.

The new start date is no earlier than July 1, 2015.

What To Do To Protect Your Health Care

If you have questions about whether your Medi-Cal coverage will be changing, talk with Bay Area Legal Aid. This nonprofit organization provides free legal advice on Medi-Cal.
