

“I have temporary housing and am on seven waiting lists. On two of the lists, I’m about number 3,000. On a few others, I am around number 1,500.”

- Jerome,
61 years old

Jerome MacIntosh had health problems that led to the loss of his construction job. Thanks to St. Mary’s Center, he did not spend one night on the street. “That’s the reason I’m involved in the community; I want to give back.”

