

“I got sick and had to resign from my job. I managed to get by for about four and a half years by using my savings. Then, I could not afford the mortgage, taxes and upkeep on the 3-bedroom home that I owned.”

- Lynda,
69 years old

Lynda feels very fortunate to have located affordable housing so quickly. She applied to live in two affordable housing complexes and was accepted about three months later to her current residence, where she has lived for five years. She is the mother of two adult children. For 41 years, she worked in the medical field as an office manager and medical assistant.

